	Note:	This policy addresses discrimination, harassment, and retaliation involving District employees. For discrimina- tion, harassment, and retaliation involving students, see FFH. For reporting requirements related to child abuse and neglect, see FFG.
Definitions	Solely for purposes of this policy, the term "employees" includes former employees, applicants for employment, and unpaid interns.
Statement of Nondiscrimination	The District prohibits discrimination, including harassment, against any employee on the basis of race, color, religion, gender, national origin, age, disability, or any other basis prohibited by law. Retalia- tion against anyone involved in the complaint process is a violation of District policy.
Discrimination	Discrimination against an employee is defined as conduct directed at an employee on the basis of race, color, religion, gender, na- tional origin, age, disability, or any other basis prohibited by law, that adversely affects the employee's employment.
Harassment	Prohibited harassment of an employee is defined as physical, ver- bal, or nonverbal conduct based on an employee's race, color, reli- gion, gender, national origin, age, disability, or any other basis pro- hibited by law, when the conduct is so severe, persistent, or pervasive that the conduct:
		s the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with the ployee's work performance;
		ates an intimidating, threatening, hostile, or offensive work vironment; or nerwise adversely affects the employee's performance, en- nment, or employment opportunities.
Examples	Examples of prohibited harassment may include offensive or de- rogatory language directed at another person's religious beliefs or practices, accent, skin color, gender identity, or need for workplace accommodation; threatening or intimidating conduct; offensive jokes, name calling, slurs, or rumors; physical aggression or as- sault; display of graffiti or printed material promoting racial, ethnic, or other stereotypes; or other types of aggressive conduct such as theft or damage to property.
Sexual Harassment	Sexual harassment is a form of sex discrimination defined as un- welcome sexual advances; requests for sexual favors; sexually motivated physical, verbal, or nonverbal conduct; or other conduct or communication of a sexual nature when:

	1.	Submission to the conduct is either explicitly or implicitly a condition of an employee's employment, or when submission to or rejection of the conduct is the basis for an employment action affecting the employee; or
	2.	The conduct is so severe, persistent, or pervasive that it has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with the em- ployee's work performance or creates an intimidating, threat- ening, hostile, or offensive work environment.
Examples	Examples of sexual harassment may include sexual advances; touching intimate body parts; coercing or forcing a sexual act on another; jokes or conversations of a sexual nature; and other sex- ually motivated conduct, communication, or contact.
Retaliation	The District prohibits retaliation against an employee who makes a claim alleging to have experienced discrimination or harassment, or another employee who, in good faith, makes a report, serves as a witness, or otherwise participates in an investigation.
	stat rega	employee who intentionally makes a false claim, offers false ements, or refuses to cooperate with a District investigation arding harassment or discrimination is subject to appropriate ipline.
Examples	mot thre	mples of retaliation may include termination, refusal to hire, de- ion, and denial of promotion. Retaliation may also include ats, unjustified negative evaluations, unjustified negative refer- es, or increased surveillance.
Prohibited Conduct	hara	his policy, the term "prohibited conduct" includes discrimination, assment, and retaliation as defined by this policy, even if the be- ior does not rise to the level of unlawful conduct.
Reporting Procedures	ited prol emp	employee who believes that he or she has experienced prohib- conduct or believes that another employee has experienced hibited conduct should immediately report the alleged acts. The ployee may report the alleged acts to his or her supervisor or hpus principal.
		rnatively, the employee may report the alleged acts to one of District officials below.
Definition of District Officials	C00	the purposes of this policy, District officials are the Title IX rdinator, the ADA/Section 504 coordinator, and the erintendent.
Title IX Coordinator	mer	oorts of discrimination based on sex, including sexual harass- nt, may be directed to the designated Title IX coordinator. [See (EXHIBIT)]

ADA / Section 504 Coordinator	Reports of discrimination based on disability may be directed to the designated ADA/Section 504 coordinator. [See DIA(EXHIBIT)]
Superintendent	The Superintendent shall serve as coordinator for purposes of Dis- trict compliance with all other antidiscrimination laws.
Alternative Reporting Procedures	An employee shall not be required to report prohibited conduct to the person alleged to have committed it. Reports concerning pro- hibited conduct, including reports against the Title IX coordinator or ADA/Section 504 coordinator, may be directed to the Superinten- dent.
	A report against the Superintendent may be made directly to the Board. If a report is made directly to the Board, the Board shall appoint an appropriate person to conduct an investigation.
Timely Reporting	Reports of prohibited conduct shall be made as soon as possible after the alleged act or knowledge of the alleged act. A failure to promptly report may impair the District's ability to investigate and address the prohibited conduct.
Notice of Report	Any District supervisor who receives a report of prohibited conduct shall immediately notify the appropriate District official listed above and take any other steps required by this policy.
Investigation of the Report	The District may request, but shall not insist upon, a written report. If a report is made orally, the District official shall reduce the report to written form.
	Upon receipt or notice of a report, the District official shall deter- mine whether the allegations, if proven, would constitute prohibited conduct as defined by this policy. If so, the District official shall im- mediately authorize or undertake an investigation, regardless of whether a criminal or regulatory investigation regarding the same or similar allegations is pending.
	If appropriate, the District shall promptly take interim action calcu- lated to prevent prohibited conduct during the course of an investi- gation.
	The investigation may be conducted by the District official or a de- signee, such as the campus principal, or by a third party desig- nated by the District, such as an attorney. When appropriate, the campus principal or supervisor shall be involved in or informed of the investigation.
	The investigation may consist of personal interviews with the per- son making the report, the person against whom the report is filed, and others with knowledge of the circumstances surrounding the allegations. The investigation may also include analysis of other in- formation or documents related to the allegations.

Concluding the Investigation	Absent extenuating circumstances, the investigation should be completed within ten District business days from the date of the re- port; however, the investigator shall take additional time if neces- sary to complete a thorough investigation.
	The investigator shall prepare a written report of the investigation. The report shall be filed with the District official overseeing the in- vestigation.
District Action	If the results of an investigation indicate that prohibited conduct oc- curred, the District shall promptly respond by taking appropriate disciplinary or corrective action reasonably calculated to address the conduct.
	The District may take action based on the results of an investiga- tion, even if the conduct did not rise to the level of prohibited or un- lawful conduct.
Confidentiality	To the greatest extent possible, the District shall respect the privacy of the complainant, persons against whom a report is filed, and witnesses. Limited disclosures may be necessary in order to conduct a thorough investigation and comply with applicable law.
Appeal	A complainant who is dissatisfied with the outcome of the investi- gation may appeal through DGBA(LOCAL), beginning at the appro- priate level.
	The complainant may have a right to file a complaint with appropri- ate state or federal agencies.
Records Retention	Copies of reports alleging prohibited conduct, investigation reports, and related records shall be maintained by the District for a period of at least three years. [See CPC]
Access to Policy	This policy shall be distributed annually to District employees. Cop- ies of the policy shall be readily available at each campus and the District administrative offices.
